Tucker thanks for posting this interview of Catherine Austin Fitts. She is truly one of my favorite people to listen to and have the two of you together just enriched the conversation immensely. I look forward to learning more from both of you. Thank you for what you do.

This is yet another person who was canceled and labeled a conspiracy theorist who, in fact, was telling the truth. She needs more air time because she's been screaming this from the hill tops for over a decade. Awesome that tucker is giving her a platform

The central bank of the world is our biggest threat and has been since 1913.

Brilliant interview, thank you both.
